

Special and Local.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 7, 1877.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

New York Sun.
C. L. Jones—Citation.
J. H. Co.—The Lost Cause.
Foot—Old Establishment.
E. E. Jackson—Dry Goods, &c.
N. Lake—Land for Sale.
G. & R.—Round Trip Tickets.
Keene & Austin—Administrator's Notice.
M. R. Nelson—Stores, Furniture, &c.
E. H. Jackson—Wrecker House.
B. M. Jones—C. Charleston Hotel.
C. W. C. Chairman—Election Notice.
L. W. C. Chairman—Election Notice.
J. H. Co.—New Fall and Winter Clothing, &c.—New Fall and Winter Clothing, &c.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Business notices in this local column are inserted at the rate of 15 cents per line each insertion.

Obituaries, notices of meetings, communications relating to personal interests, tributes of respect, &c. are charged as regular advertisements at $1 per square.

Notices of administration, and other legal notices, are charged at the rate of 10 cents per line each insertion.

The subscription price of the Herald is $2.00 for twelve months, $1.25 for six months, 75 cents for three months and 25 cents for one month, in advance. Names in future will not be placed on the subscription list until the cash or its equivalent is paid.

TAKE CARE OF NO. 1.—The papers are scanned eagerly by the public to find out who has the best goods, in the greatest variety and at lowest prices, and the public is right. Taking care of No. 1 is the governing principle of the Herald. Among the many dealers who advertise in the Herald, there is no more reliable firm than Messrs. Kingsland & Heath, the large Crocker and Fancy merchants of Columbia. We can confidently recommend them in all business respects—they have a large stock, keep everything in their line fresh, and give satisfaction. Visitors to the city will do well to examine their stock. Cash orders promptly attended to.

ASTONISHING SUCCESS.

It is the duty of every person who has used BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the GERMAN SYRUP cannot be too widely known. Ask your Druggist about it. Sample bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by W. E. Pelham.

REFER TO ADVERTISEMENT OF Good Books for the Farm and Garden, and also to that of the Dispensary of the United States. Any of our books, or any of our medicines, can be ordered at the prices named. Books of all kinds at regular publishers' prices. Orders solicited at the Herald Book Store and prompt attention given. Cash in all cases to accompany order.

EXCHANGE OF PULPITS.—The Rev. J. C. Boyd will occupy the pulpit of Aveleigh Church on next Sabbath morning and the Rev. R. A. Fair that of the church at Prosperity.

HOUSE BURNED.—A small unoccupied dwelling-house in Helena, belonging to Mr. Julius B. Smith, was burned down the night of October 30th. The work of an incendiary. Loss about $500; no insurance.

75 Cooking Stoves for sale at KEENE & AUSTIN'S.

Thrash's Consumptive cure and Lung Restorer is becoming as staple for consumption and all diseases of respiratory organs, as quinine in chills and fever. Trial 50c., large $1.50. Sold by all Druggists. For sale by Dr. S. F. Fant.

We have been asked the question, "Will you take any more terms in pay for the Herald?" Our answer is, yes, we will take them at market price. If any one owes the Herald and has not the cash let him bring in its equivalent.

I have used Shiner's Balsamic Cough Syrup in my children ten years for colds, croup, whooping cough, and it is the best remedy extant for the above named diseases.

A GRIMES, Gettysburg, Pa. The largest and most improved lot of Stoves ever brought to this market.

DIED.—Lee Jones, sixteen years old, son of Mr. Warren Jones, died at his father's house in town, Thursday morning of Typhoid Fever.

Mr. A. J. Gibson, in the Caldwell settlement, lost a child on Sunday, one year of age, by Diphtheria.

The Young Men's Christian Association having procured an eligible and convenient room over Mrs. Mower's new store will hereafter hold their meetings there. There will be a meeting on Friday evening at 7 o'clock and Sunday afternoon at half-past four. The public are cordially invited.

AN ORIGINAL TALE.—We promise the readers of the Herald a thrilling tale in a week or two—"The Way Jack Rigger Made a Start; or, The Curiousness of Mankind," by C. All those who contemplate subscribing for the Herald will do well to send in their names in the next ten days that they may secure the tale.

HOG STEALING.—Frank King and George Booser and wife and their son Wash (all colored) were before Trial Justice Carlisle Thursday morning on a charge of hog stealing. The charge against Frank was utterly without foundation and he was promptly acquitted. The other three pleaded guilty, and were fined five dollars each and costs.

We hope that subscribers to the Herald who are in arrears will apply to the fact that they have not watched the Herald when they come to town with cotton, and will come in and settle without further asking. It is a disagreeable thing to dog a man from pillar to post and dun him for the small sum of two dollars. So come in, gentlemen, and pay up.

HO! FOR THE STATE FAIR.

Those who intend visiting the State Fair are reminded to have our County well represented; they must first clothe themselves in style. Jones & Satterwhite can DRESS, SHOE AND HAT them, also CLOAK, SEWING, GLOVE and RUFF them, in better style than any house in the upper part of the State. Don't forget the place. The Leading One-Price Cash House of JONES & SATTERWHITE, the Leaders of Low Prices at Newberry, S. C.

Nov. 6, 1877—45-2t.

SOMETHING WE COULD NOT AVOID. Buy another stock of those BLACK ALPACAS we sold out at such low figures. Our customers are still asking and saying positively that none others will do as well.

JONES & SATTERWHITE. Nov. 6, 1877—45-2t.

NEW DRESS GOODS, NEW COLORS AND NEW STYLES. The young folks all like New Dresses. They want to be supplied with little money in all kinds of Nice Dress Goods, at the Leading One-Price House of

JONES & SATTERWHITE. Nov. 6, 1877—45-2t.

"HEAR WHAT YOUR NEIGHBOR SAYS."

"John, what did you pay $2.50 for those shoes for?" "Why just because I was bulldozed by a man who told me he was selling at cost, and to my sorrow I found that Jones & Satterwhite were selling them at $1.90. You bet I'll go there for the balance of my shoes." 43-3t.

NOTICE. The undersigned having this day entered into a partnership, to be known as Jones & Satterwhite, respectfully invite the public to a favorable consideration of their stock in trade.

A. C. JONES, D. S. SATTERWHITE. Sept. 1st, 1877—48-1t.

"SURPRISING TO ALL."

How Jones & Satterwhite can afford to sell Mens', Boys', Children's and Ladies' Shoes so cheap. Their stock is now complete, and they get cheaper and cheaper. Bottom in prices almost out.

Oct. 22. 43-3t.

THE WHEELER HOUSE, Columbia, has been reopened under the management of Maj. R. N. Lowrance, who is favorably known to the traveling public, and visitors to the State Fair will secure all the comforts of a first-class hotel by stopping with him.

If you want cheap Stores and Tinware, go to the sign of the Big Tin Horn. KEENE & AUSTIN.

TAKE NOTICE.—A number of subscribers who promised to pay in the fall have disregarded their promise, and we will be forced not only to discontinue sending them the Herald, but to place their accounts in the hands of a Trial Justice for collection. Do not forget, friends, that we have accommodated you through the long, dull summer at considerable loss, and that now we need the money.

THE POOR-HOUSE.—The County Commissioners chose a Keeper of the Poor-House Saturday. There were thirty applicants for the position. Mr. H. C. Wilson was chosen. Mr. Wilson gets $300 a year for keeping the Poor-House, and pays $100 for the rent of the farm, furnishing his own stock and farming implements.

Dr. O. B. Mayer, Jr., was elected Physician.

1857 and 1877.—For over twenty years Mr. Foot has been before the public of Newberry, and always in a favorable light. His store has something to say to the citizens of this place which will be found of interest. He has a very large stock of goods, endless in variety and of every quality and at prices as low as any one else on the top of the green earth. Read his card and then call on him.

Lamps, Kerosene Oil, Crockery and Glassware at the Big Tin Horn. KEENE & AUSTIN.

REDUCED FARE.—Colonel Dornand, Superintendent of the G. & C. R. R., it will be seen by his advertisement, has reduced the fare so considerably that the cost of going to the State Fair at Columbia is less for the round trip than the regular price for one way. Only $1.75 to go and return. Everybody of course will go, as everybody will. The Colonel has done the right thing and will be the gainer by it.

ATTENTION BOYS and read what two little fellows, one ten and the other twelve years old, the sons of Mr. Jas. S. Spearman, of Silver Street, have done and are doing. One day last week the youngest picked 193 lbs. and the other 210 lbs. of cotton. They pick every day and average 150 to 175 lbs. All praise to the little fellows. They will become men one of these days that it will do to tie. Follow their example, boys of Newberry.

THANKS.—The biggest turnips white and yellow brought to this office this season were deposited under the editorial table last week by Mr. Mordcaid Boyd. He has our thanks.

THANKS TO Mr. L. R. Marshall for a most choice fish fresh from the fish ponds of Charleston.

To Mr. U. B. Whites for extra fine and large turnips.

To Mr. W. P. Johnston for some of the same, one of which measured 21-2 inches in circumference.

One of the most wide awake Dry Goods Merchants in the city of Columbia is C. F. Jackson, who has just earned distinction as the Leader of Low Prices. His advertisement this week is an invitation to all of Newberry and the neighborhood to call on him while in attendance at the State Fair. He will make the visitors happy even if they do not buy, by showing them how cheap and pretty his goods are.

SALE-DAY.—Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there were quite a number of persons in from the country on Monday last. Sheriff Wheeler made the following sales: One-sixth of an acre with building in Gravel Town, $100; Chippel tract No. 1, 105 acres, $875; tract 2, 101 acres, $885; the Tucker tract, 224 acres, $2,500; 6 acres near town, $380; house and lot in town, $1,075.00, and one horse, $26.50. One tract—Miller land—74-1-4 acres, Paysinger auctioneer, $280, together with a piano, melodeon, &c. Auctioneer Thomasson made sale of a horse and some farming implements, &c.

Hundreds of good men intend going to the State Fair, and they expect to make a sensation on the grounds and on the streets, but if the count knows herself and she thinks she do, they might as well try to catch a weasel asleep as expect to fool the public in old clothes. Kinard & Wiley of Columbia, the great clothiers, say that the only chance for them to make a good appearance is to present their elegant suits, and that to prevent a disappointment they will sell cheap.

Keene & Austin have a few more Wade Hampton Cook Stoves which they will close out very cheap. Look out for the Big Tin Horn.

The travelling public are invited to notice card in another column, of that popular institution the Charleston Hotel, one of the largest and best provided in the South. The proprietors, Messrs. E. H. Jackson & Co., and their efficient assistants, spare no pains to make their guests perfectly comfortable. The table is furnished with all the delicacies afforded by markets or seasons, and the rates of board range from $2.50 to $4, according to location of room. The Charleston Hotel is second to no other in the Southern country.

Sol Smith Russell and his splendid quartette company gave one of their chaste and pleasing entertainments in the Temperance Hall on Saturday night, and we are gratified to say that the house was full, thus showing that the people of Newberry know how to appreciate anything of first-rate merit. It is needless to say that Sol Smith Russell was good and that the ladies and gentlemen in their concert of sweet songs gave an audience a treat long to be remembered. It is to be regretted that a few noisy boys caused one of the most beautiful songs on the program—"In the sweet by and bye"—to be cut short.

I. O. G. T.—At last regular meeting of Koscinski Lodge, No. 32, I. O. G. T., the following officers were installed to serve the ensuing term: W. C. T.—Z. P. Moses. W. R. H. S.—Mrs. M. E. Packer. W. L. H. S.—Mrs. D. M. Moses. W. V. T.—Miss C. Wilson. W. S.—J. H. Kinard. W. A. S.—Miss Lizzie White. W. F. S.—L. A. Marshall. W. T.—Jno. A. Kinard. W. M.—B. B. Hunter. W. D. M.—S. B. Jones. W. I. G.—Miss Lida Davis. W. O. G.—Jno. A. Lindsay. W. C.—Rev. C. H. Pritchard. P. W. C. T.—Jas. Packer.

HOT-SUPPER AND CONCERT.—The crowd at the concert Thursday night was not as large as it would have been but for the threatening appearance of the clouds. Still there were enough persons present to render the affair a success, pecuniarily, socially and otherwise. The music was vocal, and with piano accompaniment, and was very good. The "Newberry Rifles" were out in their new uniforms and presented a gallant appearance. Eight of the Company gave an exhibition in the manual of arms—they did splendidly. After the concert came a dance, which closed the evening. The evening was greatly enjoyed by all present. The proceeds amounted to about $65.

NARROW-MINDED MEN.—The Ninety-Six Guardian, one of our sprightliest exchanges, handles a certain class of business men without gloves as follows: "Merchants who do not advise their customers, and who are greedy in the eyes of the fellow who in order to realize a fortune by a single operation, killed the goose that laid the golden eggs. The same morbid contract of interest in advertising is akin to that of the farmer who sinned his land to half the quantity of seed necessary to produce a full crop, under the expectation of an abundant harvest. As a general rule, those who are waiting in the liberality necessary to make their business extensively known, will not hesitate to skin every customer who comes within their reach. Ladies are sagacious. They know who advise, and who do not, and they never expect a bargain in an ad-vor-tising establishment. So, they must learn to advise the man who does not advise his goods, has nothing worth advertising, or if he has and does not, he is a skinflint, and it is better to keep out of his clutches."

A LIGHT-FINGERED LAMB OF THE LAW.—A few months ago a mulatto lawyer, named S. L. Hutchins, came here from Columbia and established his office on the street corners. He did some work for his colored brethren, mostly of that kind denominated by the profession as "charity practice." But a few days ago he struck a big bonanza. A client of Joe Boston's had recovered a judgment for $200. Joe's client gave Hutchins power of attorney to collect the amount from the defendant, but before it was collected the power of attorney was revoked. Notwithstanding Hutchins went ahead, received the money from the defendant and sloped on the next train. Joe's client is disconsolate.

After penning the above we find the following paragraph in the News & Courier: "It may afford consolation to the unfortunate client to know that Hutchins has been recommended to a lower court. How low the deponent knoweth not."

"Stiles L. Hutchins, colored, a lawyer and trial justice of South Carolina, applied for admission to the Supreme Court of Georgia, but was referred to a lower court."

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE BANK.—The Hall Safe and Lock Manufacturing Company, of Cincinnati and New York, have just completed for the National Bank of Newberry extensive and valuable improvements. The vault has been lined inside—from top and sides—with a heavy iron and steel drill-proof lining. Two new doors have replaced the old ones; the outside door is fire-proof and the inside one (which weighs over 2,000 pounds) burglar-proof. To the latter door is attached one of the most ingenious and wonderful inventions of modern times, known as the "Time Lock." By means of this the Cashier when he locks the vault in the afternoon can so set the lock that neither he nor any other person can unlock it till a certain hour, say 9 o'clock, the next day. The object of this "time lock" is to prevent burglars from capturing the Cashier at night and making him unlock the vault at the point of the pistol.

The vault is now as secure against both fire and burglary, as human skill can make it; and within the vault are two burglar-proof safes.

The National Bank of Newberry, in point of security, is far in advance of all other banks in the State, except the First National Bank of Charleston, which has recently had similar works put up by the same company.

In the removal of his Dental office Dr. J. R. Thompson has cut off one of our pleasures, that of hearing an occasional scold caused by the extraction of a stubborn molar. We congratulate him, however, on getting in better quarters—over Mrs. Mower's new store.

Mr. Michael Werts showed us a couple more bolts of the Cheatham cotton on Monday which were altogether ahead of anything yet seen. One bolt had twelve distinct locks and the other eleven. Such cotton is worth picking.

LONG SWEETENING.—Mr. W. G. Metts, living near Pomaria, reports that he has a sorghum mill which has ground out four hundred and six gallons of syrup, all of which is now ready for use.

Mr. D. T. Livingston, in the same neighborhood, sees him and goes two hundred and ninety-four gallons better, he having made the large amount of seven hundred gallons.

Had these gentlemen sent in samples of their syrup we could sweeten our next mess of black-cake cakes and report as to quality.

The State Fair is the all engrossing topic; men, women and children think and talk of little else but going down to Columbia and what they shall wear. And it is but natural, for you want to look well and create a favorable impression; and to do so to the best advantage is the problem to be solved. We feel it our duty, under the circumstances, to say to the gentlemen and youths who have "nothing to wear" to read the card of Messrs. R. & W. C. Swaffield, fashionable clothiers of Columbia, and if that does not solve the problem then we give it up. They can suit any taste.

Do good is an injunction which every one should regard, and if we would all do it more our study, and practice it, what a pleasant, happy time we would have to live. Never pass a single day without doing some good, making somebody happy. It is our pleasure to say that Jones & Satterwhite are doing a good work and deserve the well-done of the community, in that they sell their goods at prices which enable everybody to buy, and they have variety to suit all tastes. Ladies and gentlemen going to the State Fair will appreciate our advice to get their wants supplied by them before leaving. These gentlemen have worked a revolution, and a peaceful one, it is our pleasure to say.

SAMPLE LOCALS.—Cloudy last week. Farmers are busy. Chickens are scarce. The nights are growing longer. Persimmons are ripe. There is more plentiful. The moon shines to-night. Get out your overcoats. &c., &c., &c.

It is with just such trash as the above that some papers fill their local columns, and then because the columns are filled—with something—proclaim themselves "the best local papers" in the State. Just as well fill the local columns with the most trash as to fill them with all such little items come in well enough here and there, but they are not local. An editor can't sit in his sanctum from morning till night and grind out local news. He has got to go out into the streets and keep his eyes skinned for what is going on in his town and county. He must learn what is transpiring in their own county, and expect him to keep them informed. If he does that he makes a good "local paper," and not otherwise, though he may fill his local columns brim full of words and sentences.

KING'S CREEK ITEMS.—Items are scarce. Your Mollobon Itemizer is ahead on the mad dog question.

The farmers are very busy picking cotton. The beautiful weather they have for so long. Cotton it is thought will turn out pretty fair in this section.

The corn is nearly all gathered, and glad to say that it is very good. Partridges have seen hard times since the 15th ult.

Mr. P. B. Sligh had his horse stolen at Newberry the day of the show; it was ridden about twelve miles (near Dr. Gary's) and turned loose. It was found on Mr. Hayne Chalmers' place near Japala on Saturday, and Mr. Sligh took it back, returning his thanks to Mr. Jimmie C. for his kindness in bringing his horse to him.

It is no use talking about starvation now while "postum and taters" last and old Rush doesn't take hydrophobia.

One of our near neighbors picked out one day not long since, with eight hands, 1,000 pounds of cotton. The pickers were all white except two.

The day of the show was certainly the day of the rain too. S. P. B.

CRIMINALS AT LARGE.—Newton Renwick, Peter Williams and Press Gray, (col'd), and Frank Elford (gray), (col'd), were before Trial Justice Carlisle Thursday morning on a charge of larceny. They were committed to the Penitentiary for four years, are at large, having escaped from the stockade of the Greenwood and Augusta Railroad some weeks ago. One of our Trial Justices, while riding along the road near town a few days ago, met Newt with a sixteen shooter in his shoulder. These criminals make their living by stealing, and we think it the duty of the railroad authorities who hired them and let them escape to make some efforts to catch them. After the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road again. Those who hire convicts should be required to give bond to the State for their safe keeping, and should be made to indemnify the State for every escape. If any effort has been made on the part of the railroad authorities to recapture these convicts, we have not heard of it. If the county has been at the expense of trying and convicting them, it is just a little too much that they should be turned loose on the road